SCIENCE FAIR A HUGE SUCCESS!!

On Thursday, February 18, the OES gym was the setting for hundreds of wonderful science projects from grades K-12. Four KU students did an excellent job of judging the projects. Sixth grade students happily survived consultation judging in which they explained and answered questions about their projects. All students were winners - showing off ribbons and proud grins for successfully completing their projects. Thank you parents for your help!

Grand champions from each grade level are as follows:

- K - The Great Seed Race by Macaiah Courtney
- 1st - My Fizzy Lava Lamp by Briana VanHoutan
- 2nd - Making a Hot Air Balloon by Grant Shaver
- 3rd - How Does Your Favorite Microwave Popcorn Measure Up? by Megan Miller
- 4th - Is It Cool To Be Square? by Alex Hanzel
- 5th - CSI - OES by Marek Koch
- 6th - Wind Energy by Austin Coughlin

Would you believe, two of our judges asked if they could come back next year to judge! Way to go OES BEARS ! GO
